

Is there a supernatural dimension, a world beyond the one we know? Is there life after death? Do angels exist? Can our dreams contain messages from Heaven? Can we tap into ancient secrets of the supernatural? Are healing miracles real? Sid Roth has spent over 35 years researching the strange world of the supernatural. Join Sid for this edition of It's Supernatural.

SID: Hello. Sid Roth here. Welcome to my world where it's naturally supernatural. I wouldn't want it any other way. A few years ago, a top man of God had a revelation from God that there were thousands and thousands of demons, evil spirits that were released on Planet Earth that had never been here before, to cause the institution of marriage to be destroyed, to cause sexual immorality. Well we know what's happened over the last few years. What you have in your home on the Internet, on television, on the Smart Phones, it seems as though pornography is at epidemic. It seems as though the institution of marriage is under the worst assault. It seems as though divorce is cheap. But my guest has been given a supernatural proactive way to maintain the purity, the sexual purity of your family, of your house. And if any have fallen to the addiction of things like pornography, they can be free because he has a supernatural way of setting you free. You know, I am absolutely blown away by the statistics that Doug Weiss has told me. Dr. Weiss, tell me those statistics again about pornography and people addicted to it.

DOUG: I mean, billions of dollars are being spent regularly on pornography on a monthly basis. America is number one at producing pornography. The average age of looking at pornography has dropped to under 11 to nine. I mean, we are in a battle, the enemy has declared, you talked about a spiritual battle being released on Earth. Pornography is that battle and if we don't wake up we can be eaten by it. And it's not just the people out there in the culture, the TV and all that, it's also, like you said, the cell phones in Christian homes. I mean, Sid, I talk to Christian schools. I say, "How many of you kids have a porn blocker at home?" Only about five or 10 percent. That means 80, 90 percent of Christian homes are having porn poured into their cell phones and their computers. That's crazy.

SID: It's epidemic. Here's what I found. God has a plan for your life and the devil wants to abort it. Doug, God had a wonderful plan for your life. You were supposed to be knocked down dead for a 10-count. Tell me briefly your story.

DOUG: My story, I was conceived in adultery. My mom got divorced, married an alcoholic. They got divorced. I was put in foster homes. I was sexually abused. I was abandoned. And accepted Christ when I was probably about 12 years old at the Salvation Army. But I grew up in a world of alcoholism, drug addiction, acting out immorally constantly. I came to the end of my rope, Sid, and I said, in a camp, there was no speaking, no choir, nothing. I said, "Jesus, I know you're God, kind of and I get that. So here's the deal, I want to die tonight. But I will give you 30 days. I will do a hundred percent of what you tell me to do to make it fair. At the end of 30 days if my life is not different, I will die then." That was over 30 years ago. My life has been supernatural ever since and the enemy has been losing battles constantly.

SID: Okay. When you say you will die, you're talking about you were going commit suicide.

DOUG: I was going to kill myself, absolutely. Since I was drinking and drugging, and having sex with all kinds of people all the time, I couldn't see that for 60 years of my life.

SID: Okay. You're a real sport. He gives God 30 days. What happened at the end of 30 days?

DOUG: Well amazingly, a pastor came into my life and I was in Bible school about a couple months after that, four years of that. Then he put me in seminary. I mean God just supernaturally came into my life.

SID: Wait. You were addicted to alcohol, drugs, pornography.

DOUG: Alcohol and drugs left instantly, supernaturally gone. Now the pornography thing and the sexual addiction stuff, that stayed in my life for several years in Bible school until I started to use some of the principles they teach in seminary. Then I started to get free from the pornography. That's supernatural, too. I'm clean 25 years.

SID: But here's the thing that is so amazing. If God had taken away all three of these addictions instantly, Doug wouldn't be seated here right now. Doug would not be responsible for thousands of people getting free from addictions of all kinds because God showed him step by step, supernaturally, how he could be free and now he teaches it to others. Give me an example of someone like you that got trapped.

DOUG: Joe.

SID: Tell me about Joe.

DOUG: Thousands of examples of people who have seen me all over. But Joe was in a situation where he had a secret life. He cheated on his wife, got caught. She forgave him. Not the end of the story. He began to go into pornography and he was attracted to a certain type of hair color and then that kind of person shows up at his work where he's the boss. He engages in another affair. That woman turns around and sues him for malpractice, almost destroying, not only his marriage, but his business. See, you can't have a secret. That's one of the rules. You can't have a secret and be successful with this thing.

SID: But [the devil] seems to sow the secret sins. It's sort of like a time bomb.

DOUG: It is a time bomb.

SID: And it will go off at some time. And you get away with these secret sins, but you're really not getting away with it. You're just being set up. But there is freedom. However, there is a couple of words that I want you to think about that is the problem in many of your lives. You do not have a healthy fear of God. I'll be right back.

SID: I'm so excited about what's going to happen when you are cured and you are clean, and the changes that are going to happen in your marriage, in your family, in your community. But I am equally amazed at the research that you have, Dr. Weiss, on the brain. Tell me some of the things you found out.

DOUG: You know, you think this is new. But thousands of years ago, it says, when you sin sexually you sin against your own body, but I couldn't have a theology professor or philosophy professor explain that to me. Now when I became a researcher in the field of sexuality, what happens is when we have a sexual encounter, we have the highest level of endorphins and [unintelligible]. These are brain chemicals. It's the excitement center of the brain and boom, you literally attach and glue to whatever you're looking at, whether it's real or imaginary. So some of these teenagers at home looking at pornography are setting themselves up for failure later. You can attach to certain things. Like I know a guy, when he was a boy, he attached to brunettes or a certain body type and that's what he did. And he married someone not like that. Right? Well one day he's at work and a girl exactly like that walks into his life.

SID: So you're saying the brain can't distinguish between fantasy on the computer, the imagination, and the real life situation.

DOUG: Right.

SID: So it was a time bomb.

DOUG: It was bang, you know. And so he instantly was attracted to her and instantly had an affair with her within a couple of weeks. Okay. Because she capitalized on his neurochemical reinforcement towards her, you know, ring the bell, feed the dog. Okay. So when he saw her, he salivated. And that's why your husband is kind of doing this when he looks at that kind of thing. And so, and he's been clean for now 15 years or so. All right. So there is healing and there's hope. But we can actually prevent this stuff. There are teachings that can help our young men, and men, get involved. Get in the war. This is a war and every man needs to be in battle. Every wife needs to be asking the questions and helping your sons. This is time to do war back so that we don't have these problems 30 years down the road.

SID: Now you used the phrase that I've used since then, that I love. And that is, every husband that I'm talking to right now, you have a different father-in-law than you think. Let me tell you who our father-in-law is. God is your father-in-law. You better watch what you do to your wife. That is powerful.

DOUG: Oh yeah. Marriage is three people. It's you, your spouse and God. Even Christians define marriage between a man and a woman. That's not biblical and it's not supernatural. Supernatural is God, a man and a woman. Now that marriage, that tri-unity, that trinity on Earth as it is in Heaven is power, but it needs to have purity. Okay.

SID: Okay. When a family is walking in purity and you talked earlier about the secret sins that no one knows. But when a family is walking in purity, what changes usually occur in that family?

DOUG: Well in that family, it's usually the environment. Where there's no secrets there's going to be honesty. You can be flawed and loved. You can be celebrated and cared for. Okay. But they're going to be mature. What happens is, Sid, when someone gets into this kind of sexual sin, it robs them of emotional, spiritual and moral development. That's why you have people who are like men of God going down and seeing prostitutes. Like, how do they get there? Because their moral and spiritual development erodes when the sexual sin comes into your life, and it robs you of the ability to make some of those choices clearly.

SID: I'm reminded of the scripture, a little leaven. "A little leaven will leaven the whole loaf." A little bit of sin, you get away with it. You think no one knows. It's your little secret. So what would you say to a man that's watching us right now and they're saying, "Well that's me, I do it, but I can't tell my wife these secrets, because if I do, she might leave."

DOUG: Well what I would say to you sir is, I love you, I've been there, reading my Bible and having sexual sin. I know your pain. You don't believe you're lovable. Go find a man and get accountable. Tell somebody. Get out of your secret world. You deserve a clean heart, a clean life. But you will not get by just talking to Jesus. You're going to have to talk to another man and get free. That's what I would tell him. And he can get free. He really can.

SID: Now you found this out when you were struggling with your sin.

DOUG: I had a supernatural thing happen.

SID: I mean, going to Bible school and struggling with pornography. But the statistics say that so many ministers are struggling with pornography.

DOUG: Yeah, because good ministers are men and they're chained by the world sexually. But here's what happened to me. I had a supernatural encounter with the Lord. I was in seminary and the Lord said, "I want you to tell a man every time you sin sexually." I'm like, Jesus, are you crazy? But what was my deal? A hundred percent of what you tell me to do. I said, okay. So I talked to my roommate and I said, because he knew I heard from the Lord. I said, "God told me if I act out sexually with myself or pornography I need to tell you." He was like, whatever, okay. And then the first time I told him I felt really bad. The second time I told him I felt so bad because now I was, the humility of that was starting to heal me and I started to get free, Sid. I mean, I take a polygraph to verify I haven't done anything sexually with myself, pornography or others in over 25 years.

SID: So if God could say, go free, I mean, coming from an illicit affair, he didn't go into detail, shuffled around with foster parents, at a young age being given a book that's pornographic, suicidal. If God could set Doug free, God will set you free. Give me one more tip besides accountability that people can hang on to.

DOUG: Well I think, first of all, you want to be accountable. But that's an ongoing process. That's why I'm encouraging churches to get involved in helping guys talk to each other. Let this be an open conversation. Instead of the rules of engagement being don't ask, don't tell, I say, switch the rules. Ask and tell, and we can be free.

SID: You know, wouldn't it be wonderful for you to be free? I mean, yes, God forgives you, but once you, you know, your wife, your husband, because it works both ways, you know, they may not know what you're doing, but they feel it. They sense it. Let's get that wall down. Let's get free.

DOUG: Amen.

SID: Let's accomplish our destiny.

DOUG: Yes.

SID: We'll be right back.

DOUG: Amen.

SID: Sid Roth here with Doug Weiss. Dr. Weiss, there are so many people that are addicted to things like pornography and they seem as though they're stuck.

DOUG: Yes, yes.

SID: Why are they so stuck?

DOUG: Well, Westerners like to talk to Jesus, talk to God, but they don't want to talk another person because of pride. Okay. James says, if we confess our faults, Jesus will forgive us and cleanse us. But in James 5:16 it says, "If I confess my faults to my brother, to another, then I may be healed and my prayers will be effective." So I can be forgiven, but not healed. That's why they're stuck. They're forgiven, but not healed. They're using that verse backwards. If Doug keeps his secrets to himself, he's guaranteed to stay sick and his prayers will be ineffective. That's why they're not working. So they're stuck.

SID: You know, someone heard Doug's teaching and he's an usher in a church. And he said, "I'm going to do something about it." Tell me about that.

DOUG: Well he got tired of men being stuck, because he was hearing about it. So when I came, I did a men's conference. And he said, "I'm going to start talking to guys." So he knew all the guys at church. He would grab them by the hand and hold their hands, Sid, and he would say, "When was the last time you were inappropriate with yourself or inappropriate with images?" He'd look them right in the eye. And the guy did that looked down, he said, "We're going to talk about and then if it's real serious you can go huddle up. I am not going to stay watching you stay sick anymore." He was just tired of it in his church. And just one guy changed so many men's lives because he changed the rules of engagement. I'm going to ask and they're going to tell me. And he was old enough that he could get away with it. It was great.

SID: We handle a little bit of this. But tell me some practical steps that you can do.

DOUG: Sure. Real practical like getting rid of thoughts of lust. Get a rubber band, put it on your wrist. Any time you lust or scan a woman, snap it.

SID: That hurts.

DOUG: It hurts. Ring the bell, spank the dog. Right.

SID: Pavlov. Okay.

DOUG: Yeah. Eighty percent of your lust life will shut down in one month. Okay. Get the porn blocker on your cell phone, on your computer. Stop that stuff from going on. If you're engaged in any kind of Internet inappropriate texting or Facebooking, shut those things off. Most of us don't need social media. We just don't need it. Shut those things off if they're dangerous for you. And women need to get engaged by asking intelligent questions and making sure the porn blocker is on, and making sure that your husband is actually taking some responsibility for his son's sexual development. And there's a lots of teaching on that. Any guy can become an expert even though his dad failed him like my dad failed me.

SID: Tell me about a real life person. Tell me about Dwayne.

DOUG: Dwayne is a sad case because Dwayne kind of was like me. He had a pornography problem, but he had a secret, right. He met a good Christian girl, married her, but never told her.

SID: Okay. I've heard the phrase, "Our secrets make us crazy." Is that true?

DOUG: Yeah. Our secrets make us sick. They show up. First lust, then sin, then death. They show up. So what happens is he kept the secret. Then he meets somebody. He has an affair. Okay. Now he's a successful business guy at this point. He's 15 years into the marriage. Right. Has an affair, gets the girl pregnant. Now he not only has to tell his wife he had an affair, now he has another child. See, he didn't have to have that happen. No man needs to have that happen. No woman married to a man needs to have this happen to her. If they clean up first, they don't have to go through this process. But if we don't clean up, what happens is then our sin will eventually expose us, because God loves us and He wants us to have a supernatural clean life in which these things are not a part of life, these consequences are not happening, and that will prevent some of that [trouble].

SID: You talk about, in the last days, these Jezebel spirits will be raised up. Explain.

DOUG: Well that's already all over the world. And it basically says, no matter what your spiritual belief, you can be sexually immoral, that sex and spirituality are separate. That's not true. That's a lie. And what happens is when you believe that lie, you start getting seduced and once you get seduced, your destiny gets reduced. Does that make sense? So if the enemy can seduce you, he can reduce you.

SID: Do you realize that one indiscretion will, could possibly ruin your entire life? So some of you already know this the hard way. But if you are battling right now, right at this moment, there's so many wonderful steps that you can take. But they're not just psychological steps. They are supernatural steps. For instance, you at this point, how many years have you been free?

DOUG: Over 25 years, Sid.

SID: Okay. I want every one of you say a prayer. I would like, would you like to know that prayer that Doug himself says every single morning? I'd like to hear it.

DOUG: Yeah. When I wake up, I'll say, Lord, I hate the lust of all women. I commend my mind, my will, my emotions to instantly reflectively cast them down. Lord, I am a thousand percent satisfied with my wife, my family, my life and business. And I just declare those things because, I mean, gosh, you can't travel anywhere or be anywhere where things can't hit you. But I make a commitment before I hit the floor that I'm going to cast that thing down. Because it's not going to take away my destiny. My destiny is to set the nations free, and that's mine. And God gave it and God wants to see it happen. Amen. So every man has a destiny. Every woman has a destiny. But like the people in Israel, we have to fight for our promised land. Do you know what I'm saying?

SID: I understand that. Where is God in this? I don't understand how a man, I understand how a man could be addicted. But I don't understand how a man would not do everything possible to be free if they know God. But people just don't do it. Why?

DOUG: Well sometimes they don't know how to do it, like I didn't. I did not know. I was quoting scripture, memorizing, fasting and praying. That's what I knew, but it wasn't enough. I didn't know to confess my faults. Now when God told me to I started to do that.

SID: Okay.

DOUG: Principles.

SID: Someone watching right now, they have their secret sin. What they can do about it as far accountability? What would you recommend? Who should they go to?

DOUG: Go to your spiritual leader. That's what they're there for. And you say, what? They've heard it before. I mean, since the Internet we hear it almost every day. I mean, Sid, so many pastors call me and say, you know, "A friend of mine or someone in my congregation, or one of my people on staff they're struggling, Doug. Can we send them to you?" And we say, sure, that's great. And they get well and they get free. And what's happening, what's really exciting, Sid, is that when this man or woman gets clean and free, their incomes can often double, their ministries return back to their life, their destinies are taken up. And here's what's also exciting. I had a couple who flew in from Canada to do intensives in my office, and their children's destiny have been relit. You know what I'm saying?

SID: The Bible talks about generational sin.

DOUG: Yes.

SID: In other words, you're not just protecting yourself, you're not just protecting your marriage, you're protecting your children, your grandchildren, you're great-grandchildren, you're great-great-grandchildren, and the gifts and calling of God are without repentance, which means, wherever you're at, you will not miss your destiny, but stop now, right now.

DOUG: Amen.

SID: Let me tell you one other thing. I don't understand people that willfully continue sinning after becoming believers. Why? Because when I became a believer, I had an encounter with evil. I know the reality of the dark side, of the demonic, of the devil, and I wouldn't want to play footsy with the devil for all the money in the world. Where is the healthy fear of the Living God?

DOUG: Amen.

SID: Here's what the Bible says: "Those that die," Daniel says, "Some will rise to everlasting life," that's with God, "and others to everlasting condemnation. Why would you die, O house of Israel?" Choose life.

DOUG: Yes.

SID: Repent of your sins. Believe the blood of Jesus washes it away.

DOUG: Yes, yes.

SID: And make Jesus Lord of your life.

DOUG: Yes.

SID: Say it with your mouth right now. Get right with God now.

DOUG: Yes, yes.

SID: Next week on It's Supernatural. Why, throughout every generation, is the Jew persecuted wherever we go, wherever we live? Now I can understand why that occurred before the Messiah of Israel came, because it was from the seed of a Jew that the Messiah would come. But why after? I know why. And I say this to you, you will not understand End Times. You will not understand End Times unless you understand the Jew, Israel and the One New Man. And I tell you one more thing, as I share this significant End Time word, healing is going to flow like a river.
