Sid: Hello, Sid Roth here. Welcome to my world, where it's naturally, supernatural. I recently took a trip to Texas, and I saw something outrageous. I went into some ones living room, it was jam packed with people, and the presence of God, was so strong, and Cindy Parton, it was your home. And I have to tell you, I brought a young man that works with me in our organization, and he walked through something, you call it a "fire tunnel." What goes on in a "fire tunnel?"

Cindy: A fire tunnel is the game we played as kids, London Bridge, where we all joined together and put our hands up, well, we did the same thing with the fire tunnel. And as people would come through, we just bless them, and the presence and the power of God comes on them so strong, some of them can't even walk through it, when he touches them.

Sid: Well that's what I was watching, this young man. Then, what happened to him was more outrageous. He had three visions, he knew someone's name, that he didn't know who they were. And we went out for lunch, nice Mexican restaurant, I might add. That was a good lunch.

Cindy: Sure was!

Sid: And he knew something about the waiter, that totally arrested his attention. You call what you do, "soaking." What is a soaking room?"

Cindy: Soaking is just being intimate with the Heavenly Father. Just letting the Holy Spirit come and do what he wants to do. It's waiting on God, abiding in him. You can call it many things.

Sid: The ancient Jewish Rabbis understood how to be in the Shakina glory, Cindy: That's it.

Sid: The presence of God, be still. But all sorts of wonderful things happen when someone is still in God's presence. How did you get into this whole "soaking" thing?

Cindy: Well when we first started, twelve and a half years ago, we were inspired by the Toronto Blessing, and God just really touched us. We were at a time in our lives, we were desperate for God, we had to have God.

And we had to have him show up powerful on our behalf.

Sid: I don't understand why everyone isn't desperate for God.

Cindy: I don't either

Sid: You know what they are? They're just plain mashuga, that's a Hebrew word. It means crazy. You are mashuga if you are not desperate for God. There's some people that are desperate for sports, there's other people, desperate for entertainment. I'm desperate for God.

I mean how do you even compare the two?

So you were normal.

Cindy: We were desperate, so we were calling out to God. So my husband and I, then realized, that in order to keep this, we would have to start doing this on a regular basis. So he and I began to soak every night, And then it was decided, on Labor Day, 1995, that we would start this meeting in our home. Well all these people came. We didn't know what we were doing, we just started getting in the presence of God, and we found that it was just so incredible how God would show up. All we had to do was open our door, invite him to come, and he always came. And he comes different every week, to meet the needs of the people that are there that week. It just amazes us. I'm still in awe and excitement, and anticipation, every week about what he is going to do that night. We look forward to Mondays.

Sid: Do you have a semblance of order of what's going to happen at your house on a Monday night?

Cindy: We have no plans and no agendas. All we do is just say "Holy Spirit come, and do what you want to do here tonight."

Sid: I have to tell you another thing I observed. The people looked like they were having fun. They looked like they genuinely loved one another. How could people be having so much fun?

Cindy: That's what happens when you get in the presence of God. When you get a relationship with God, when you've had your own encounter with him.

Not just hearing somebody else tell you about him, or their experience. You have your own experience.

Sid: Well before you have your own experience, I would like for you to hear some experiences from a couple of people in that room. Let's take a look at that.

Woman: Well, as I was laying there soaking, I kept seeing the waves coming up and crashing, like all this turmoil was going on.

I had a lot going on.

But as I was just laying here soaking, I was just asking the Lord,

to just take it all away, it just calmed.
And the water just kept splashing over me
like I was on a calm beach.
And then after that, I saw myself
running across the floor.
And you know when you have socks on, and you scoot?
Then I was jumping up and down, and I was playing with the Lord.
And I was just having fun, and it was like, he was my Dad,
and all my troubles were gone.
Man: Well it just came back to me.
I was laying there soaking.
And for a long time, nothing came.
I was just laying there enjoying the Lord.
And then I saw that I was beside a fence.
You know when you take off in an airplane,
and you see things that are close.
And then you get further away, and everything
changes, and more comes into the picture?
Well this is what was actually happening.
And as I was departing from the fence,
the details began to get smaller and you could see the landscape larger.
And I said "well Lord, where am I going,
and what am I doing?" He says "you're not going anywhere." He said "you just need to understand that everything is a matter of perspective. Its how you see things and from what position you see it." And perspective means everything. That's just what the whole Word is. You need to see things from a different perspective, or a larger perspective, or a heavenly perspective, rather than from our puzzle piece perspective. Because that's how we are, were in a big ol' puzzle, were the puzzle piece. And we think we see the whole picture from the puzzle piece perspective
But that's not true. We need to see it from Heaven. And Heaven has got it all under control.
And it's all in the right place, doing the right thing,
so hang on, and it's ok.
Sid: I think you got the message.
They're enjoying themselves with God.
But you know what?
I believe God's enjoying Himself with them.
And we have a special CD called "Soak",
and it's by Rohn Bailey.
How did he get these songs, Cindy?
Cindy: God gave Rohn every one of these songs.
He has a special anointing to write these,
and they are for such a time as this, for soaking.
As you come into the presence of God,
it helps you come and enter in a lot easier.
Sid: We'll be right back after this word.

We now return to It's Supernatural.

Sid: Hello, Sid Roth here with Cindy Parton, and we're discussing this ancient Jewish form that's been lost for so long, on waiting on God. Because when you're waiting on God, a tangible manifestation of His presence, you begin to hear God's voice. And what could be more important than you hearing God's voice? Cindy, those people that we saw on the last segment, they're having so much fun, but I see you as a grandmother having so much joy watching your grandchildren. Tell me of their experience in your soaking room. Cindy: Well, I love being a mother, but being a grandmother is so much better. And my grandchildren, this is the only church they know. Just seeing people lie on the floor and get in the presence of God, having fun with God, that's all they know, so they come in and enter in. Our little grandson, 5 years old, loves to get the power cord out. And he comes in... God gave me a word that the power cord, He wants us plugged in to the power.

He wants us connected to that main power source straight from heaven; that we are plugged in directly to Him to where we have Him imparted into our life
to give away to others.

Well, my 5 year old grandson thinks this is the coolest thing, to go around the room and plug people in and connect them to God.

I don't know that he even knows entirely what he's doing,
but he's having fun doing it, and he's helping people to enter into the presence of God.

Because, what we've learned is God gives us a picture.
A picture is worth a thousand words.

And when people see this, it helps them to react
and respond to what God is doing in their life;
how He wants to interface with them,
get them connected to Him where they've got the power.
And it's just incredible, the things that people do and react.
We've had people actually look at this and say
"Do you have that plugged in? I actually felt a current go through my body when you touched me with that."

Sid: Somehow it's like a point of contact that God showed you.
But then, what do you call these things?

Cindy: That's a fireball.

He told me one night that it's better caught than taught.

And so, we just throw it to people,
and they catch the fire. It is incredible.

Sid: You catch it! How about you?

Ha ha!

Cindy: And that's what happens,
it releases something in your spirit.
It gets rid of all the religious junk out of you,
to where you can actually have a personal
one-on-one relationship with God.

Sid: You know what my spin is?
All this religious tradition is beautiful.
There's a beauty to it. But there's so much that we've lost the whole purpose of our being,
and that's to have intimacy with the Living God.
What is going on, because I see some people,
they are like blessing other people constantly?
Explain that.

Cindy: Well, I've trained people that I want to go around the room while people are in position,
a comfortable position, whatever that is;
whether you want to lie, sit, wherever you're comfortable at,
and to let the Holy Spirit come.
And then I've trained people to come around the room
and to touch them, to impart to them a special blessing, the love of the Father. And as people feel that touch on them, whether it's on their shoulder, their head, wherever,
it just helps them to feel connected to the Father.
And everyone shares, as that touch is administered to them,
that it helps them to see their Father
and to experience Him even deeper.

Sid: Well, you know, I can tell you for myself,
I was experiencing so much peace,
I actually haven't stopped using this CD

by Rohn Bailey that you put together.
I go into my office and I close the door,
and I put up a "do not disturb" sign, I play this CD,
and members of my office team say to me
the whole office is saturated with peace.
I'm saturated with peace,
but the whole office is saturated with peace.
Isn't that what most people tell you
when they attend your Monday night meeting?
Cindy: That's what they tell us, that they feel the peace.
Sometimes they feel it walking up the sidewalk,
on the street, getting out of their cars.
We've had them walk in the front door
and just fall over in the power of God,
because the presence is so heavy.
But we keep the soaking music playing in our house 24/7.
Sid: Tell me about Nana Fire.
Cindy: Nana Fire is this little grandmother, so sweet,
who came to us three or four years ago.
Her husband had just passed away.
She's a registered nurse, she'd been his caregiver,
and had taken care of him until the very end.
Someone invited her to come,
and she came just desperate, tired,
thinking that she had no reason to live.
Sid: You know, many times when a spouse dies,
the other partner dies shortly thereafter,
thinking just like you said.
Cindy: Well they'd been married for over 40 years, and she didn't think there was anything left to live for in life.
And when she came, the first night she came,
as she's just soaking in the presence of God - and this is new to her, she's never seen it before - she saw a vision. And God gave her this vision, and He showed her this plant sitting in a windowsill
that was dead, completely dried up.
And she saw Him walk over to the plant,
run His finger around the soil, and said
"This plant will live again, and it will restore life."
And then she saw the plant coming alive,
green leaves coming out of this plant.
And as she did, God said
"And that represents you, and you will live again."
And now, she goes with me everywhere we go to share.
She wants to give it away.
She is so full of God and the joy of the Lord.
Sid: Why is she called Nana Fire?
Cindy: Because she carries the punch of the fire of God in her.
She has literally caught the fire,
and God has given her a special impartation and anointing
to give it away and impart it to others.
And so, this little sweet grandma that sits there that you'd think nothing of, when she touches you
the fire of God literally burns through you.
Which is what happened to Greg,
he received an impartation of the fire of God.
And it came so powerful, that's what causes then the visions, the dreams, the words.

That's what releases God to show up in power, is when we allow Him the freedom to do what He wants to do, and we stop telling Him what we want Him to do and how we want Him to do it.
We just say "Holy Spirit, come and do what You want to do."
Sid: I'm going to turn Cindy loose in the next segment
to be like Nana Fire.
Pray that the fire of God come on you.
Get ready. Don't go away.
We'll be right back after this word.

We'll be right back to It's Supernatural.

For He Himself is our peace,
who has made both Jew,
and Gentile, into one,
and broke down the barrier of the dividing wall.
His purpose was to create in Himself,
to create in Himself,
His purpose was to create one new man.
One new man.
One new man.
One new man.
One new man.
One new man.

We now return to It's Supernatural.

Sid: Hello, Sid Roth here with Cindy Parton,
and Cindy, I've been to your home,
and I see the cars just lined up.
How many people do you jam into your home
on a Monday night?
Cindy: Well, it varies every week, but we can have anywhere from 40 to 50 on a regular basis.
The most we've ever had has been 110 packed in there.
Sid: You were telling me about one person
that had never been there before,
and they knocked on the door, and what did they say?
Cindy: This man... The doorbell rang, and the doorbell never rings because everyone just opens up the door and walks on in.
Our son-in-law went to the door and he said
"Is this the place where God's invited to come and he actually shows up?"
And he's like "Sure, come on in."
Sid: Well, you know what I find so amazing is they have so much fun there.
Now you and your husband have full time jobs
and you still do this?
Cindy: That's right, we both work full time.
We are just normal, everyday people that God uses.
Anybody can do this. Try this at home. You can do this.
Everybody can have a soaking prayer center.
You can have an intimate place with God in your home.
Sid: Tell me about that psychiatrist that shared when I was there.

Cindy: Oh, he is just amazing.

He's been in practice for many years,
but when he found out about the soaking,
he started requiring his patients to come in 15 minutes early.
He puts them in a room with soaking music playing,
and for them to spend 15 minutes alone with God
before he meets with them.

Well it's helped his practice,
because things are happening, people get saved,
healed, delivered, and healed
sitting in that 15 minutes alone with God.

Sid: Someone yelled out to him

"What does someone benefit from that soaks
before they see their psychiatrist?"

He said "Oh, about $25,000."

And I don't think he was kidding!

Cindy: I'm sure he wasn't.

Sid: Cindy, marriages are getting restored. Tell me one.

Cindy: We have a couple that had seen a marriage counselor for many years, and they started seeing a new one, and she had heard about us.
So part of their counseling, she required them
to come soak on Monday night.

And every week, we have seen them just grow,
and their marriage has improved,
they have a closer intimacy with each other,
and with their children.

He just shared this past week how God is even increasing in areas of him knowing how to relate to his children better, how to pray for them better, how to discuss things with them.
Through the soaking, all this has come.

Sid: Now people are getting physically healed
by just being in the presence of God?

Give me an example.

Cindy: Well we have one couple that have been married over 16 years that were trying to get pregnant, and just couldn't.
They ended up adopting two little boys from Viet Nam,
and they were perfectly happy and content
having these children. They had their family.

And she began to come in and she'd say
"Just pray for me, that the pain goes away.

I hurt so much. If the pain would just go."

We weren't even asking for them to get pregnant anymore,
we were just praying for healing.

And God healed her, totally healed her,
and she came in pregnant,
and now they have a beautiful little girl.

Sid: You know Cindy, I still can't get over watching your grandchildren having so much fun in that place,
and being raised with, not so much dry tradition,
but knowing God is fun.

Tell me about people all of a sudden hearing God's voice.
You were speaking for a group of women recently.

Cindy: Right. We went into a restaurant,
this restaurant was owned by Muslims
that allowed us to come in and have a women's luncheon.

They knew it was a Christian women's luncheon,
in their private dining area.
We had a beautiful lunch and we all shared,
just normal people doing normal things.
We found this is a normal way of life.
And after we finished lunch, I began to share.
I just taught them on soaking, the basics of soaking,
what it is, what it'll do for you.
I put on Rohn's CD and we began to soak.
And I only had 15 or 20 minutes because of time constraints that we had to be out.
As these women began to soak for the very first time,
God came so powerful in this restaurant.
And He doesn't care where we are,
He'll come wherever we welcome Him and invite Him to come.
He comes into this restaurant, and I asked them
"What happened? What did you experience?"
Every lady in that room had been touched by God.
Some of them had received two visions,
some of them had even gotten three visions
just in that short period of time when the Holy Spirit fell.
Because we asked Him to. All we had to do was just ask Him to come, and He showed up.
It was incredible how they received insight.
God refreshed them, revived them,
and that's what happens when you're in the presence of God.
We've been taught to do, do, do.
We've never been taught just to be; just to wait on Him;
be still and know that He is God.
At our house I say "Shut up and soak. Quit talking and listen."
And Nana Fire tells us He gave us
two ears and one mouth for a reason, that we need to listen twice as much as we talk.
And that's what we've learned to do is listen to His voice.
And we practice on each other. Every Monday night...
Sid: Well doctors practice medicine,
so maybe we should practice hearing God's voice.
But the peace that I received...
Cindy, I had, literally, by going to your place,
a jumpstart again. I needed a jumpstart.
I repent, I needed a jumpstart, and I got that jumpstart.
I believe that you could pray for people right now,
and they would have that jumpstart.
And then when they get the CD of the music
and your teaching on how to have a soaking room...
Could you pray for an impartation for the people now?
Cindy: Sure. Heavenly Father, I just ask You to come now.
We are desperate for You, we are hungry for Your presence,
we are hungry for our own encounter with You.
We want our own experience with You.
We don't want to just hear others talk about their experience.
So Holy Spirit, I invite You to come now.
We welcome You to come to each person right now.
Minister to them. I ask You to begin to increase wisdom and knowledge and discernment to them.
I ask for an impartation of Your anointing to them, that they realize that they too can enter into Your presence.

They can do this in their very home.
All they have to do is welcome You,
and You always come, because You are so faithful to minister to the needs of Your people.
Because You want us to know You,
and You want us to love You,
and You want us to feel the love that You have for us.
So thank You today for the impartation
of the Father's love, the Father's heart,
and that You're refreshing and reviving people,
bringing them back to life again,
that there is hope being restored in every area of their life,
that you can make it with Him and with His help.
And as you get in His presence, He'll show you
what to do and what to say.
And we thank You for it in Jesus' name, amen.
Sid: Cindy, last thought on having this soaking room.
Cindy: Just be comfortable with it.
It's not complicated, it's very simple.
We are the ones that try to complicate the message.
Just be simple. Wait on Him, expecting Him.
Sid: You know, it's too simple!
We want something really A, B, C, D, E, outlines, work five hours a day just to put the thing together.
Cindy: Right, and it's not that way.
When you come in, no plans and no agendas,
allowing Him to do what He wants to do,
it's so much fun that way,
and keeps you on the edge of your seat
just waiting to see what He's going to do next.
Sid: And you know what I found,
this soaking is progressive. But before you can soak, you have to have everything removed separating you from the love of God.
Oh, the love of God, there is nothing to compare.
And He loves you, but there's junk separating you.
That's called sin.
And it's so wonderful, God sent His son, the Messiah, to the world - Yeshua, Jesus, The Anointed One - to take all of your sins upon Himself, to die for you,
and by His wounds you were made whole and clean.
It's a fresh start, it's a new beginning.
Take that new beginning.
And it's not so much going to heaven.
Yes you go to heaven, but it's heaven on earth.
Go for the gold. Do it now, right now.
