

Hello, Sid Roth here. Welcome to my world, where it's naturally supernatural. Have you ever felt, "Is that all there is? There must be something more?" There is, and my guest knows the missing ingredient and no one's talking about it, but she wants to pray it over you.

Is there a supernatural dimension? A world beyond the one we know? Is there life after death? Are there human forces of darkness trying to block God's blessings for your life? Do angels exist, providing us with supernatural protection, disarming our enemies? Can our dreams contain messages from heaven? Can we tap into ancient secrets of the supernatural? Is God ready to bring a tsunami wave of healing onto planet Earth today? Sid Roth has spent over 40 years researching the strange world of the supernatural. Join Sid for this edition of It's Supernatural.

SID: Krissy, you have what are called open visions. Describe what an open vision is to you.

KRISSY: I call it an encounter. I feel like I'm encountering the presence of God. He'll take me into scenarios. There was a time when I was doing something very ordinary, I was standing in a kitchen of all places, and I felt this presence of God come and fill the room, and I knew something was about to happen. I had my hands by my side. Then all of a sudden, I felt a hand fill my hand, and then it was Jesus, and he said, "Come follow me." I thought, "Wow."

KRISSY: He took me back and he took me into moments, into moments where I could see what he saw and feel what he felt.

SID: It's beyond watching it on say a video.

KRISSY: Yeah.

SID: It's actually you were in the scene.

KRISSY: I was there. I was there.

SID: You could smell, you could taste, you could feel all your senses.

KRISSY: Yeah.

SID: Could you imagine being able to see major miracles of Jesus, major events in his life, as it's actually taking place? You talk about reading the Bible, that's nothing compared to this. This is the Bible. Tell me a couple.

KRISSY: He took me into the Bible. He took me into his word. The Word took my hand and took me into the Word, where I was with the woman at the well, and I could feel what she felt. I could feel the deep emptiness that she was experiencing over the life that she'd lived. Then the moment that Jesus spoke to her and said, "If you only knew who it was who was talking to you, you would ask him for living water, and he would give it to you, and you would have eternal life." I could feel this moment when he spoke those words, as life began to flow into her body, and she had hope for all of us who ever feel dry and weary.

KRISSY: Then I was suddenly, there was another one with the woman with the issue of blood. The one I want to also talk about is the woman caught in the case of adultery. Here Jesus was, and the men around him were trying to trap him, "What are you going to do with her?" They accuse her and they throw her in front of them. In this vision, what I experienced, I was feeling what Jesus felt, and I felt him run to her and cover her with his robe. I could feel the dirt on the ground, it was even getting up into my eyes, and I could taste it, the fire inside of him to shield this woman that he cared for, that was being accused. He looked at them and I could feel when he said, "Let any of you who's without sin cast the first stone." I feel like that's what he does for us today.

SID: He literally has our back.

KRISSY: He has our back. He cares for us and he robes us in that robe of righteousness bought by his blood. That's where he brought me next, was to the cross. It was the most agonizing place I could ever imagine, and I was seeing through his eyes.

SID: Excuse me, did you see that movie by Mel Gibson?

KRISSY: Oh yeah.

SID: How much more real what you saw was even that movie?

KRISSY: There's no parallel, because I'm feeling his feelings. I'm a feeler in general, and I was feeling in his heart, and I was seeing out through his eyes, and I could see the people. I could see the sort of almost gray casting on them, that they had no idea what they were doing. I could feel the agony inside of the lamb being slain, and I could feel that moment where he said to the Father, "Father, forgive them, they don't know what they're doing."

KRISSY: Then all of a sudden, after that moment, I felt the most intense feeling yet. It was like what I felt at the well, with living water rushing into the woman. I felt this living water bubble up from within the lamb, and it's that joy. It was joy, the joy set before him that he endured the cross. I was feeling that. It was that compassion inside of him, that kept him following through with what he came to do.

SID: You were chosen, according to the Bible, before the foundation of this Earth. I know this, I know that if you take a little step towards him, he's going to run towards you and surround you with a new robe of being right with him. It's called the robe of righteousness.

KRISSY: Yeah.

SID: Repeat this prayer after me. Dear God.

Audience: Dear God.

SID: I'm a sinner.

Audience: I'm a sinner.

SID: And I'm so sorry.

Audience: And I'm so sorry.

SID: I believe.

Audience: I believe.

SID: That your blood.

Audience: That your blood.

SID: Washed away my sins.

Audience: Washed away my sins.

SID: And you have no remembrance of it anymore.

Audience: And you have no remembrance.

SID: It's so good to be so clean.

Audience: Yes.

SID: Repeat this, it's so good to be so clean.

Audience: It's so good to be so clean.

KRISSY: It's so good to be so clean.

SID: Now that I am clean.

Audience: Now that I am clean.

SID: Jesus come inside of me.

Audience: Jesus come inside of me.

SID: Take over my life.

Audience: Take over my life.

SID: I make you my Lord.

Audience: I make you my Lord.

SID: Amen.

Audience: Amen.

SID: Now Krissy, I'm going to take you back. You're 15 years of age, and I can picture a 15 year old struggling with rejection and insecurity. You went to a meeting, take me back there.

KRISSY: I was 15 and I was really at this place where I was at the end of my rope. I felt lonely, I felt rejected, I felt like my life didn't matter, but I knew I wanted it to matter. I was at this place where I'm just like, "No, I need God, I need you to show up for me. If you're real, then you send somebody to pray for me, because I'm not going to go." A couple people came and prayed over me, and I could feel the walls of my heart just begin to fall and fall.

KRISSY: Then one man came over and he prayed, and he spoke a word right into my identity, right into the thing that was lost in me, which is who I am and that my life matter. He said, "Girl, I just see you reaching so many people." Then all of a sudden the power of God came over him and he said, "Mover, shaker, history maker." In that moment, the walls of my heart were gone. My heart was wide open, and I lifted my hands and I began to just worship the Lord and cry out. I just wept, and I wept, and the floodgates of my heart were open.

SID: You told me people actually saw a glow around the three of you.

KRISSY: In that moment, I had felt like I was in a bubble, a bubble of his presence. We actually had a picture of that, where there's me and my friends in that glory around us. That's what I was experiencing in that moment. I got up and I'm looking around, and I'm seeing through something. It was the presence of God, it was His glory.

KRISSY: I made my way to my family, and my uncle looked at me and he just shook his head and he said, "He's big, isn't He?" When he said that, I fell to the ground, because I realized that's what I'm encountering right now. Right in my mess, God met me with His mercy and His bigness. That night He held me in His arms and He held me tight, and He spoke into me who I was. I woke up the next morning just with these fresh eyes and said, "Good morning Lord." I knew right then, he wasn't just God afar, he was God a-near. He was Abba, Father.

SID: If you can believe this, if you can believe this, I'm going to have her say those three words, the three words were mover, shaker, and history maker. If you can believe this, you speak it into the lives and if you can believe it, this is you.

KRISSY: Yeah, I just declare right now that you've come to a crossroads in your destiny, and Father God wants to speak this word of truth over you right now. Mover, shaker, history maker.

SID: You know, life takes many twists and turns. She's rising in the corporate world, climbing the corporate ladder, and she's married now, but she lost the intimacy with God. She lost the fire of God that she had, but then she had a baby and God used that baby. I'll let her tell you when we come back.

SID: You know, at 15 you were so on fire for God, but the things in the world just pulled it out of her literally.

KRISSY: Yeah.

SID: Then her daughter is born.

KRISSY: Yeah, I had become very dry and very far from that original intimacy that I had. I stopped seeking Him. Here I was, and I was this shell of myself. I wasn't even myself anymore. I was dry, I was weary. I had my baby girl, and there was something about her life growing inside of my belly, that I could feel new life coming alive in me as well, spiritually. When she was born, it was like this world that I had built for myself, by myself, in and of myself, that wasn't a strong foundation for me to stand on anymore. Suddenly, I'm a new mom and I can't control anything. I was very aware of that, painfully aware of that.

KRISSY: In the middle of the night, I'm holding my little newborn baby, and I just began to feel at that place again, where I was at the end of my rope. I couldn't go on in my own strength anymore, and I began to cry out again to the Father. I know there's many that get to that place, where suddenly you're face to face with the reality that you cannot do it on your own anymore, and that is the most beautiful place to be. In that moment, I'm holding my baby, it's the dark and I'm the only one in the room, and I look up. I lifted my face, postured myself to surrender to the Father. I said, "God, who am I?" It's like, "Here I am, who am I now? What do you want me to do?"

KRISSY: He said to me, "Krissy, look down." I looked down and I saw my baby girl there, innocently in my arms. He said, "That, right there, that's who you are. That's what I want you to do." It was so multifaceted, I'm her mom and also I'm to be like her for the Father, in His arms. He reminded me and He brought me back to that place of original awakening of who I am in Him, His daughter that he longs to just hold and wrap in His arms. I came alive, I came alive.

SID: Going back to these open visions, these encounters that you had, tell me about the dirt road.

KRISSY: Yeah, man. I went full bore after the Lord after that, with my baby girl. A few years later, I had been at a service. I was laying out in the presence of God, and I didn't realize everybody had left the room, but they had. Suddenly, I wasn't in the aisle-way of a church anymore. Suddenly, I was on a dirt road and I was laying there just utterly limp.

KRISSY: I saw a man in white begin to walk toward me, and he picked me up. In my heart, I'm thinking, "What is happening? Who is this? Where is he taking me?" Suddenly, I could see the throne, and I could see seated on the throne, the Lamb of God, and I could see Jesus. I could see him sitting there. I realized this was the Father, and He had picked me up, and He laid me at the feet of the lamb on the throne. He looked to the son, and He said, "Here you are son. Here I have found you another one. Here I give you the reward of your suffering, another life laid down in total surrender to you."

KRISSY: In my heart, I'm trying to speak. No words could come out, but my heart began communicating with the heart of the Lamb. I said, "What am I doing here?" He wouldn't answer that question. It wasn't the right question. Then I asked in my heart, "What do you want me to say to them?" I knew, as much as I'd love to stay right there forever, there was a purpose for me on the Earth, a mandate from Heaven. "What do you want me to say to them," I said. The Lamb answered me heart to heart, and he said, "You speak of the cross, you speak of my love," and I said, "Okay, I'll speak of the cross and I'll speak of your great love."

KRISSY: Then the Father picked me back up, and brought me back to that road He found me on. I realized by the Spirit in that moment, that was the road that was marked out for me, from before the foundations of the Earth were formed. There's a road for us. Each of us are on a road and on a path, and we have purpose. Just lean back into the plans and the purposes of God and say, "Here I am Lord," like Isaiah. We get caught up in this conversation from Heaven that says, "Who will go for us? Who can we send?"

KRISSY: The Father is looking for vessels to use on the Earth for His purposes and His glory. If we'll just raise our hands in surrender and say, "Send me, I'll go. Here I am." He doesn't need our background, our education, our perfection, our money. He doesn't need all of that, our smarts. He just needs our availability, and He'll use it.

SID: Now Krissy, you say that it's okay to color, like in a coloring book, outside of the lines. You say God made you to stand out.

KRISSY: Yeah.

SID: Be right back.

SID: Now, I don't know about you, but when I even think of a coloring book, I like to color, not that I do it, although they found it's pretty relaxing, I like to color inside of the lines, but you had a son that liked to color outside of the lines.

KRISSY: Yes, and he still does. It's amazing how God will use our children to speak powerful lessons to us. One morning I had, actually in the middle of the night, I had woken up and I was agonizing over just had I said something wrong? Had I said it the wrong way? I just needed to hear from Him. I was weeping and crying out to Him, and suddenly the Holy Spirit spoke, and he said to me, "Krissey, it's okay for you to color outside the lines. It's okay." I got it.

KRISSY: All of a sudden, I was taken back and remembered this moment where I saw my son and my daughter, they were both coloring. My daughter's older than my son. She was being taught in kindergarten at the time about coloring inside the lines. That was just a real passion point for her. I saw him look over at her paper and look at his, and it was this moment of comparison, where he realized, "Oh, maybe I am just scribbling." He just looked at her and these crocodile tears began to pour out of his eyes.

KRISSY: That's what the Father was showing me that I had been doing. I was looking over at that person's paper, and I was realizing how they were doing it and mine couldn't compare. He said to me those words, "It's okay to color outside the lines." Then He began to say to me, "You were created to stand out and not be boxed in. You are an original." I believe that's a word for people watching too, that God would say to you, "You are an original, and it's time to embrace our uniqueness, and just be not afraid to color outside the lines."

SID: I'm reminded of the fingerprint. Do you know why they take fingerprints? Because no one has the same fingerprint. No one is created to do what you are created to do better than you. You are the original. Don't let the devil bash you in, because you are God's workmanship.

SID: Krissey, 4:00 AM in the morning, you're up. You're sipping your coffee and God speaks to you. What did He say?

KRISSY: It was at the time when I was working on my book, and I was wondering, "What am I going to call this thing that you're birthing in me God? What is your heart for this?" I was getting up really early in the morning to seek Him. With small children, that was kind of the only time I could get away with Him, was, well this was 4:00 AM, because my children are very early risers, painfully so.

KRISSY: 4:00 AM, sipping my coffee, and all of a sudden the Holy Spirit just stops me in my tracks, and he whispers this secret on the Father's heart. He just says, "Krissey, God thinks you can do anything." I just stood there and I wept, and I got it. "Wow, He thinks I can do anything. If God thinks I can do anything, then who am I to disagree with God?" We need to know that. Everybody watching and listening needs to know that God thinks you can do anything. He paid a great price for us to be able to do absolutely everything through Him. The same spirit that raised Christ from the dead is living in us and moving and operating in us in our everyday. In the seemingly ordinary, we can encounter the extraordinary of God. He thinks we can do anything.

SID: I want you to speak this into the spirit of those watching or in the studio audience right now. Will you do that?

KRISSY: Yeah, yeah. I hear that word deposit like a seed. Let these words be a deposit like a seed that are going to be planted in good ground in your heart, that God thinks you can do anything. Nothing is impossible with Him, and He is living and active inside of you. I just declare an activation over that right now in each and every one of us, in me, in you, that we be activated in breaking down everything that would hinder us from agreeing with that simple truth.

KRISSY: I declare and I proclaim right now over you, that God thinks you can do anything. It is time, the Lord says it is time for you to begin to agree with the plans and promises of God, that He has created you for such a time as this, to rise up in the boldness and the meekness of Christ Jesus, and just declare to yourself every day, lock eyes in the mirror and say, "God thinks I can do anything." Let's do it right now together.

SID: Okay.

KRISSY: Okay, ready? God thinks I can do anything.

Audience: God thinks I can do anything.

SID: God thinks I can do anything.

KRISSY: Anything.
