

Hello. Sid Roth here. Welcome to my world, where it's naturally supernatural. Many people believe that TL Osborn had more miracles and salvations than anyone in history, but when a Messianic Jewish rabbi showed him how to be in proper alignment, so much glory appeared. TL had to adjust his theology, next on It's Supernatural!

*Is there a supernatural dimension, a world beyond the one we know? Can we tap into ancient secrets of the supernatural? Can our dreams contain messages from Heaven? Is God ready to bring a tsunami wave of healing onto planet Earth today? Sid Roth has spent over 40 years researching the strange world of the supernatural. Join Sid for this edition of It's Supernatural!

SID: So, TL Osborn, who I'll tell you, this man walked in such miracles and so many salvations that- He's in Africa, and he used to go to foreign countries, and that's why he isn't as well known in the United States, but he was in Africa having a meeting and he keeps saying at the end of his meeting, "The rabbi is coming. The rabbi is coming." Well, guess what. I got the rabbi here that was coming, Rabbi Curt Landry. Rabbi, take me to this. You go to, where was this in Africa?

CURT: We went to Togo [pun].

SID: Oh. Well, no place.

CURT: Yes.

SID: So you went to To-go. You get there, the expectancy level had to be sky-high. He kept saying, "You think this is good? The rabbi is coming." So Rabbi, you come. What happened?

CURT: It was so powerful that when we were there, we knew that if we brought the one new man that the Apostle Paul was speaking about in Ephesians 2, that God would do exceedingly abundantly above all we could ask or think. We knew. We had great expectation, but at this point, we had never done it in a large healing environment like this. There was probably 35,000, 40,000 people in this soccer field. This was the first night. It grew to 50,000 by the third night. Christy and I got up, we did the repentance. I spoke the blessing over them. They received it and I mean, it was being translated into three languages and I was speaking it in English. It was drowning out the next two languages, Toganese and French. It was just absolutely so powerful.

CURT: Dr. Osborn purposely hung back and he says, "I'm going to come up on the platform once you have set the atmosphere according to what we had discussed. As soon as he came up on the platform, he was not speaking any longer than five to seven minutes and then off to the left, I'll never forget it, this was life-changing for him and for myself, off to the left probably about 10 or 15 people back, there was a woman and she was screaming. Dr. Osborn was very sensitive. He taught me this. He says, "Any time you're doing an outreach, always look for God's trigger. Let God choose the trigger point. Don't get ahead of God. Preach your message." But he didn't even-

SID: I mean, what a privilege you had. He mentored you on the secrets so they didn't go to the grave so you could release them. But go ahead.

CURT: But he was so sensitive, that lady was the trigger. I'll never forget. He looked over, Sid, and he said, "Mama, mama, mama, come on up here." He had some of his people bring her up on the platform and at this point, Dr. Osborn was standing on the platform and I was sitting down with all the pastors around the back. They gave us strict instruction. You know me, I'm a man of honor. I'm under authority. But as soon as he started to speak to this woman, I jumped up out of my seat and I literally stood right here, right next to him. I shouldn't have, but I was just standing there and I looked into this beautiful woman's eyes and she had glaucoma, just white all in her eyes. The reason she screamed, because her eyes miraculously opened and she could see. Praise the Lord.

SID: You know, we've had lots of testimonies of this happening, but what's it like to watch it happen right before your eyes?

CURT: Well, this is the thing about Dr. Osborn, is he didn't want any phony miracles. He wanted to make sure, so of course he did the fingers and she could count the fingers, and that was great. But he asked her how she went blind. Evidently, it was her second pregnancy. She had a spinal injury and she had lost her sight. Dr. Osborn, very wise, he said, "Well, do you have children?" She says, "Yes, I have five children." All this is documented. He says, "Yes, you have five children." Then he said, "Well, you mean you have children you have not seen." She says yes. Dr. Osborn said, "Is there any of her children that are here that she has not seen? Would you bring them up on the platform?" Sure enough, here comes this beautiful young man-

SID: So the first time in her life, she can see her own children.

CURT: Yeah. So I'm standing there and I'm not supposed to be standing there. I didn't think about it until afterwards, but I'm just standing there like, "Okay, now we're going to see." The Scripture says, "The Jews need a sign," so I'm standing right there. This beautiful young man comes up and stares at his mother and no reaction from her. She's looking at him. You can tell she does not know who he is. She went up and she took her hands and went and grabbed his face and started to feel his features from the top of his head, around his eyes, his cheekbones, his lips, and she broke. She just fell to her knees and started to praise the Lord. As soon as she did that, a wave of glory went out from that platform. The Royal Rangers who were around keeping people 15 or 20 feet from the platform, that all caved in. People rushed the platform. Wheelchairs were flying in the air. Crutches were flying in the air.

SID: But here is the point I want to make. This man of God was used to see miracles, but what did he say the difference between what he was used to and what occurred was?

CURT: On this experience, what he was saying is that, "I've never seen healing and miracles, signs, and wonders without me even preaching."

SID: You know, it's the chemistry, if you will, of the one new man. I mean, God has been waiting almost— The saints in Heaven are looking over the balcony of Heaven. "When will the Gentile Christian and the Jewish believer be one in my body so my body can have and release the full power of God?" Rabbi, that's what you're saying you witnessed—

CURT: Absolutely.

SID: –the release of the full power of God. Rabbi Landry says, "Just as the identity of the church was hijacked, so was his. Find out what happened when his identity was stolen and how it changed his life when it was restored, and how it will change your life. Be right back.

SID: You teach that the church's biblical heritage was robbed. When was it robbed and what was it robbed of?

CURT: Well, during the Constantine period, you know, when the Romans couldn't control the Jewish church, the true believers, and they had to change its identity by changing its culture and its calendar. If you remove people from your culture, then you're going to lose your identity and you change their calendar and you're going to lose your blessings. You know, we know as Jews that in Exodus, just putting your feet under the table of Psalm 23, "The Lord prepare a table for us in the midst of our enemies," that's the Passover table. There's nine blessings of provision and vision, protection, multiplication, and prosperity for your family.

CURT: All that wisdom, knowledge, but most of all identity, and Sid, you know this. Identity is the key to the glory because identity has to do with personal intimacy that turns into a corporate intimacy and then turns into a congregational intimacy where people are being healed. That's what happened in Togo. The alignment was there, Jew and Gentile, and the Lord literally prepared a table for us, let's say, in that soccer field and there was multitudes of miracles. It happened many other places.

SID: Now, you had firsthand knowledge of what it's like to have your identity stolen. Yours was stolen at birth. Tell me briefly what happened.

CURT: I was conceived out of wedlock, Jewish mother, Gentile father. Because of that, both families said no to the marriage. Then they set up for an abortion. Three days before the abortion was going to happen, my father, the Catholic, went to the Catholic priest on the Air Force base and said, "The Jewish woman could go into Los Angeles and have the child born in a hospital there, a Catholic hospital, and put into a Catholic orphanage." That's where I was there.

SID: Now, you pay attention to this, what he's sharing, because this is also what happened to the church. But go ahead.

CURT: Yeah. Then I was six months in the orphanage. I was colicky, I was put in with the bad babies, and then, praise God, Ray and Rita Landry, Catholic man, Jewish woman again, the Lord's making His point, comes back and they adopt me at six months. You know, I went from being labeled, basically, first labeled as bastard, next one is orphan, next one is adopted, and then the next one is no identity, Jew or Gentile. Then when I was born again at age 36, I spiritually got visited by the Lord when I was involved in a Messianic wedding, but three years after, it's in my book, three years after I was saved, I miraculously was reconnected with my biological father that told me the story. I found out- Excuse me. I found out that-

SID: By the way, you had no desire to meet them. You loved the parents that adopted you.

CURT: Right, yeah.

SID: Why did you meet him?

CURT: The Lord had me stay home from work and you know me well, I work hard. I'm a type A. I stayed home and I prayed and I had a download from the Holy Spirit. I operate as a prophet and the Lord said, "I want you to find your biological father." I listened to it and I ignored it. The next day, I was going to go to work and the Lord said, "Stay home that day." I was on the floor in my office at home and He said, "I want you to find your biological father." I said, "I don't want to open that can of worms." The Lord says, "When I open a can of worms, I take care of all the worms." Five phone calls later, I miraculously found my father in Palm Beach, Florida, and he said, "I would love to meet you." At that time, I was in the fruit business. Publix supermarket was one of my accounts. Of course, they have a distribution center in Miami.

CURT: I flew into Miami, drove to Palm Beach, and sat in a little café and I watched my, you know, 25-year-old self walking into that- Literally we looked just alike. He literally was walking in. We have a little different waddly walk. Here he comes walking in and it was just like [me]— it was so healing. That night, as the Lord said, that night I got to share with him my testimony and had the honor and privilege of leading my biological father to the Lord the first night.

SID: When you found out that you are Jewish, that's good, but how did it change you, Curt? That's what I want to know.

CURT: You know, it's a spiritual thing. It has to do with honesty and integrity to the Lord that you're being true to yourself. You know, people asked me to write books for years. I'd been in ministry a long time. But when Thomas Nelson came and said, "Listen, there's so much confusion over in the evangelical community and in our community that we sell our books to over the Jewish roots. There's so much." They said, "Listen, we know your testimony. Would you share with us? Would you write a book and parallel your 63 years to the church? Because we feel like the Holy Spirit's bringing the church back to its roots."

SID: I'll tell you what, Curt, it is so amazing when you really find out how the identity of the church was stolen, this Emperor Constantine, he literally made it illegal to observe anything Jewish. He denuded the church of its identity. Well, the church is ready to get its identity back. You know who the church is? It's us. It's you. It's people.

CURT: That's right.

SID: When we come back, I want to find out how to get our identity back.

SID: I tell you, we're having so much fun. How does living in sync with God's calendar make a difference in us?

CURT: The biggest thing it does is it shows Him that He is the Lord. That's what brings the glory. He is the Lord. You know, in Hebrew we call it מועד, M-O-E-D. That means God orders Passover. God invites you at Passover, at Pentecost, Shavuot. He invites you to these.

SID: He actually goes even stronger. He says, "These are"— He doesn't say these are Jewish feasts.

CURT: These are the feasts of the Lord.

SID: He doesn't. He says, "These are my feasts." That puts it in a whole different dimension. Let me ask you something. Do you have to observe the Passover to have your sins atoned for? Do you have to observe the Passover to have God love you more?

CURT: No. No, it's not about salvation.

SID: What is it about?

CURT: Relationship. He's your daddy. He's your Father. You know this is the key. This is what got released in Taiwan. The last service I was there, I released the Father's love, and when we did, we just literally took our hands out like this and you could just see waves of rows of people just falling in the Spirit, crying and weeping because there's been so much torment, particularly for the indigenous, the Bulumbi tribe that's there, the indigenous Taiwanese people, where there in this service. You know, their identity has been dishonored. When you come with the love of the Father, the only thing that— We have a saying. Only your father can name you. You know that in the Hebrew it's very important. We're Jewish because of our mother, but our father is the one that names you. When we release that Father's love, the glory falls.

SID: Would it be okay with studio audience and you at home if I asked him to release the Father's love? Anyone interested? I am, too. Would you do that right now?

CURT: We'll do that. Father God, we come to you in Yeshua's name and Lord, we are all battling that orphan spirit. We are being bombarded by the airways and every device that there is trying to steal our identity. Lord, I thank you that your word says it's the anointing that breaks the yoke. Break that yoke of that orphan spirit. Break that yoke off that poverty. Break that yoke off that false, counterfeit identity and, Lord, I ask now that you release the Father's love. I thank you, Lord, that perfect love casts out all fear and faith works through love. So Lord, if I just lay hands on you right now and I decree that you would be all that you are called to be, just as Jacob blessed Manasseh and he blessed Ephraim, he took his right hand and put it on the second-born, the church, because the firstborn Jew, Ephraim, already had the anointing and that blessing. Lord, I release that blessing of the Father's love, the firstborn, and the second-born as one new man in Yeshua's mighty name.

SID: Wow. But I'll tell you, talk about born. Some of you just have religion whether it's Hinduism, Judaism, and any -ism, but do you have relationship with the Living God? Do you have your own experiential knowledge with the Living God? Of course you want this. Say this prayer with me out loud and that is your entry into having the relationship you were created to have, to call Father God "daddy." Repeat after me out loud.

SID: Dear God.

Audience: Dear God.

SID: I'm a sinner.

Audience: I'm a sinner.

SID: And I'm so sorry.

Audience: And I'm so sorry.

SID: I believe to the best of my knowledge.

Audience: I believe to the best of my knowledge.

SID: That the blood of Jesus.

Audience: That the blood of Jesus.

SID: Washes away all of my sins.

Audience: Washes away all of my sins.

SID: And I am clean.

Audience: And I am clean.

SID: And now that I am clean.

Audience: And now that I am clean.

SID: I ask you, Jesus, to come inside of me.

Audience: I ask you, Jesus, to come inside of me.

SID: Be my Lord.

Audience: Be my Lord.

SID: I want to hear your voice.

Audience: I want to hear your voice.

SID: I want to be a well-done type of son, one that really you're happy with.

Audience: I want to be a well-done type of son, one that really you're happy with.

SID: I want to experience the fullness of your love.

Audience: I want to experience the fullness of your love.

SID: Amen.

Audience: Amen.
