

SID: Hello, Sid Roth here. Welcome to my world where it's naturally supernatural. My guest says that God's passion is not to just speak to only prophets. He so desperately wants to talk to you too, and daily. Next.

Sid Roth has spent over 40 years researching the strange world of the supernatural. Join Sid for this edition of It's Supernatural.

SID: Now, my guest is known for his strong, prophetic anointing. His prophetic ministry is recognized worldwide by many leaders within governments, including the United Nations, but his ministry had a dramatic beginning. You see, in his culture, much depended on education and he had just failed an exam that would determine his educational possibilities. I mean, Tomi Arayomi was completely devastated. About how old were you when [you] took the exam?

TOMI: I was about 15 years old when I took the exam.

SID: Well, that's a good age to get completely devastated at. Why was it even more important to you? You came from a professional family background.

TOMI: Yes. My parents were both doctors. My dad's a gynecologist, now he's a consultant. My mom's a dentist, and all my family members, I came from a family of doctors and lawyers and engineers. We call it the Nigerian dream. I was definitely set up for the Nigerian dream very early on, so to experience this level of failure was mind shattering. It brought me to a place, and my twin brother to a place, of suicidal thoughts.

SID: But both of you, and this is the most amazing thing, had the same dream on the same night that totally transformed his brother's life. But Tomi needed a little more help. What was the dream?

TOMI: In this dream I crawled through, well to give a precursor, my brother and I both [began] to pray and unbeknownst to us. I said, "God, if you are real, show me what you want to do with my life or tomorrow I'm going to wake up and I'm going to kill myself." That was my—

SID: You were really that—

TOMI: I was desperate.

SID: Desperate. Mmm.

TOMI: I was sitting in the backyard, I'll never forget it, of my house and I prayed that prayer. Got into my house, went to sleep. My brother and I shared a room, shared a bed together. And I fell asleep. He was upside down, I was sleeping right ways up, and I had this dream. In this dream, I crawled through this hole in my house and I was very glad to get on the other side of it. I was overweight at the time and I had a disease called Rickets, a leg disease, and I was so glad to get on the other side. Then I saw myself or a version of myself on a stage. This version of myself was doing what I now know is preaching. Back then I thought he was shouting because I was raised a Catholic. To see this experience of this guy, this version of me who didn't have

Ricketts, who wasn't overweight, who didn't have asthma, preaching with such boldness, I was amazed. I was transported onto the stage so I could look closer at myself. People were just chanting and as I was listening to their chant, I heard them clearer of—like a football field that you listened closer and they were going, "Jesus, Jesus."

SID: It wasn't "Tomi, Tomi."

TOMI: I was furious. I was like, "This is Tomi up there. It's not Jesus. This is Tomi," because I wanted to be a celebrity musician, so I thought, "This is the wrong name."

Then this being, a bright light showed up in the corner of the room and he said, "My son, you asked me. This is what I've called you to."

I woke up, my brother woke up. I sat up, he sat up, and he looked at me and said, "I had a dream. Turned out we had the same dream at the same night, at exactly the same time."

SID: He didn't follow what God said. His brother followed. He didn't. But one day a car ride in your family car changed everything.

TOMI: Yes, my family and I we're on our way back from a late night journey. I was about 15 going on 16 at the time. Everyone was asleep in the car except for my dad who was driving. As we're driving on this journey, all of a sudden I hear this voice call my name, "Tomi." but I thought it was my dad calling me to ask me about my studies so I pretended to stay asleep.

Then flash came over my eyes.

SID: I thought I was the only one that did stuff like that.

TOMI: Then I heard the voice again but this time a flash came over my eyes. "Tomi." I opened my eyes and I looked around and I said, "Dad, did you get hit by a speeding camera?"

He said, "No."

I said, "But you called me."

He said, "I didn't call you."

I woke everybody up, everybody said they didn't call me. I went back to sleep and this time the voice called me a third time. I said, "Who is this?"

He said, "This is Jesus. Today the enemy planned to take up your life, but I'm going to save you and I'm going to call you into the ministry."

SID: How clear did you hear his voice?

TOMI: It was audible. I've heard the audible voice [of God] four times in my life. That was definitely the second and it almost shattered my ear drums. It was that real. It was like my brother or my dad calling me, told me to put my seatbelt on, told everyone to put their seatbelts on, and I followed the instruction.

Then he said, "Yell watch out."

I just said, "Watch out," at the top of my lungs. My dad switched lanes. The moment he switched lanes, five cars crashed into each other in the way we just left—

SID: Wow.

TOMI: And we missed it by a fraction of a second. My brother said, "How did you know that?"

I said, "God told me." It was in the backseat of the car. I surrendered my life to Jesus Christ.

SID: And then he starts moving in the prophetic. You say that this lockdown that most people see as a curse, God has actually used. In what way?

TOMI: Well one day as our prime minister, Boris Johnson, asked this question and made this statement, "All non-essential personnel or businesses have to be closed." I heard that word non-essential and it played in my mind for about a week. The Lord said to me, "Tomi, what is the essence of the church?"

I was like, "What do you mean?"

He said, "Well, if salt loses its essence, what good is it? Why should they shut you down if you're essential?"

I began to sit down and I thought, "What's the essence of the church?" A couple of people, pastors, got together to write a letter to send before our prime minister talking about the essence of the church. We're a food bank, we provide for the hungry, we're a community center, we serve teas and coffee, and yet the question kept ringing in my ear. What is your essence?

Then I realized it's almost as if, if you're on the mast of a ship, let's say you're on the Titanic, it's about to go down, and all you have is you and your phone, you're not putting your phone in the air looking for your latest score on Candy Crush. You're holding it in the air to find a signal. Even though the phone can play games, can play music, it can do so many things, you discover the essence of the phone in the emergency. In the emergency, you discover your essence. I believe this is a pivotal opportunity for the body of Christ to get back to its essence. It can do many things but the essence of the church is revelation. I will build my house upon that rock of revelation.

People don't want to hear about God. I discovered that people want to hear God. I remember being in a taxi one day with a guy called Mohamed and Mohamed was driving this taxi and my brother was preaching to him about Jesus, Jesus, Jesus. We'd just come off a prophetic gathering and I said to my brother, "Don't tell him about Jesus. Tell him what Jesus is saying."

My brother said, "Well, you tell him." We had a fight in the car because I broke his little preach. All of a sudden, he starts driving faster because he's trying to get home away from us because he's like, "Yeah, Jesus is a prophet, he's one of our prophets," and all of a sudden I said, "Jesus is not just a prophet. He's a son of God and he wants to share something with you. Do you want to know what he has to say about you?"

He said, "Yes."

We said, "Oh, God is showing us that you're in trouble because you are selling cocaine on the side of your Uber business. Now you're in trouble with the court and God can redeem you from that court."

He goes, "Yes. Oh my goodness." He starts slowing down the car. He's like, "Please pray for me. I can't believe, how did you know this?"

We're like, "Well, Jesus told us that's what's going on and you started this Uber business to get away from your father's company who wanted you to work there."

He's like, "Oh my goodness." The Uber says at the end of the road, turn left, he turned right and took us the long way home just so we could lay hands and pray on him.

At the end we said, "When you get back to your house, make sure you call out to Jesus and receive him."

He says, "Brothers, I'll make sure when I get home, I pray." We've seen how one word of revelation can transform anybody because people don't want to hear about God. They want to hear God.

SID: You know what? Tomi trains large numbers of people in an organization. It's called, I like the name, RIG Nation.

TOMI: Yeah.

SID: That's a good name.

TOMI: Thank you.

SID: What does RIG Nation do?

TOMI: RIG stands for Restoring Issachar's Generation. Issachar was the tribe in I Chronicles 12:32 who had understanding of the times and knew what Israel ought to do.

SID: The very first time I read that, I said, "God, I want to have an understanding either the times. I want to know what Israel ought to," I'm Jewish, "I want to know what Israel ought to do," but that applies. I want to know what my family should do. I want to know what I should do next. I want to know what's going on in this world.

Well, the BBC in England gets a hold of this, what's going on with this man that prayed for the Issachar anointing, and what happened?

TOMI: Well, I had a dream and in this dream I saw a big ship and I knew it was called Europe. All of a sudden I saw our then prime minister jumping out of this big ship and he had a huge treasure chest of money. All of his cabinet members were all in the water with their treasure chests. I said, "God, what is this?"

The Lord said, "The great exodus from Europe."

All of a sudden, as I saw this vision, I woke up, I started sharing it on a program I did called The Watch. This is going to be a great exodus from Europe before the terminology Brexit came about. All of a sudden Brexit, which is the British exit from the European Union started to become a big thing that tore apart the country almost, but this prophetic word had already been released, that we were getting ready to leave. People were preparing themselves who had heard this prophetic word. Well, somebody from the BBC caught a hold of this prophetic word and they said, "Can you come on the BBC and talk about the future of Great Britain?" And so I did.

SID: You've made a statement. I'm going to quote you right now. You've said that, "The time will come when governments of nations will seek the prophets again." That's happening, isn't it?

TOMI: Yes, sir. Well, as of 2015, I released a prophetic word that a man would become a president of the United States of America and that man was Donald Trump. After the release of that prophetic word, I received a phone call from a lady who is one of the presidents at the United Nations in Geneva. She called me and she said, "Tomi, can you come to the United Nations at my special invitation? I will pull together ambassadors, I will pull together the leaders, and all I want you to do is prophesy over them." We went and she pulled together a group of ambassadors and a group of world leaders. One by one, we shared the word of the Lord with these world leaders. There were tears, there was amazement. I'll never forget one woman came in her hijab and through her hijab you just saw tears streaming down her face because people don't want to hear about God, they want to hear God and the prophetic makes Jesus real.

SID: Do you want to know what prophet Tomi saw for the next, next nine years? Some of what he saw has already happened. What's next? Be right back.

We now return to It's Supernatural.

SID: I would like you to share a couple of prophecies that have propelled you into national prominence.

TOMI: Wow. Well, I've really shared the Brexit prophecy. A few years before I had this dream. And in this dream I saw then candidate Obama and he came into a kitchen that I was in and as he walks into this kitchen, he pours himself a bowl of cereal and he says, "I'm going to be the president of the United States of America." He says, "And people are going to vote for me and they're going to let me in and I'm going to put policies in the earth that are going to destroy the earth forever and I'm going to get away with it because I'm Black."

I woke up from the dream terrified. I remember my dad, I was in Wisconsin, he said, "Who's going to win the elections?"

I said, "Obama," and he was so excited. Everyone was excited, first Black president, because God was trying to see, are you supernatural or are you superficial?

Well, a few years later, Sid, I was in the same kitchen in the same dream but this time I received a knock on the door. I said, "Who is this?"

He said, "This is Donald Trump." He came into the kitchen. He sat down and he said, "Can you thank the church in America for making me the 45th president of the United States?"

SID: This was before he became president?

TOMI: This was before he became. I woke up from the dream and I called a friend who owns a television station and I shared it with his television station and not mine because I didn't want to delete the word. I wanted to resist the temptation to delete it. I wanted to publish it on his channel. All of a sudden, as he shared this word, it went viral all over YouTube, people started resharing it, I lost a lot of friends. I was called an Uncle Tom and I kept reminding people it's Uncle Tomi, not Uncle Tom, and all that word went viral, and that's how I got invited to the United Nations and then I prophesied over some ambassadors there and that's how God projected me from the United Nations into the world.

SID: I'll tell you, Tomi, we serve such a big, wonderful God. There's a song, "I've Got the Whole World in My Hands." God has the whole world in His hands.

TOMI: Uh-huh.

SID: He certainly has you in his hands, but this nine, the next nine years prophecy, wow. Tell us a few that have already come to pass as of what you saw for the next nine years.

TOMI: Sure. I remember after the elections in the US hearing the Lord's anger for the first time in my life, in my years of ministry, and He came up to a big clock in this vision and he started pulling it forward and it accelerated very fast. As I saw this vision, I said, "God, what is this?"

He said, "Tell them, 'You have nine years left and nine years will feel like nine months and nine months will feel like nine days and nine days will feel like nine seconds.'"

SID: Hmm.

TOMI: I'll never forget hearing it. I said, God, "Nine years left to what?"

He said, "Nine years left to the new crisis for the global reset." I came on, we have a prophetic channel, I shared it on our RIG Nation channel and I was like, "We have nine years left. Nine years to a new crisis. It will not be COVID, it'll be the climate. The climate, the climate. They'll say, 'Give us power.'"

John Kerry came out at a newspaper article, "We only have nine years left to save the planet." Boris Johnson, "We only have nine years left to save the planet." People started resharing these news articles with me because it was verbatim just as the Lord had said it. In the prophetic word, I prophesied that Netanyahu would be shaken and that he would lose his place in some kind of election. I believe God was shaking the heavens and the earth just as He said He would shake things that none of us ever thought could be shaken. Why is he doing it?

I said, "God, when will the shaking start?" He said, "When you are unshakable, because the righteous are as Mount Zion that cannot be shaken." I realized that we are the salt of the earth, but in 2020, He's definitely the salt shaker.

SID: What is the agenda behind the scenes, prophetically, the true agenda, of all this emphasis on climate change right now, nine years to survive?

TOMI: The agenda from well-meaning people is to create a new economic structure, a new financial structure. The agenda from the enemy is to hasten the time because he knows that his time is short and he wants to unify and consolidate power, consolidate finances, consolidate resources into one place of unitary control and we are getting ready. See the spirit of the enemy consolidate financial power back to himself so that he can choose who eats, who drinks, who wears, what they wear, where they go, and how they should live their lives.

SID: God showed you the amazing thing about the United States of America and an amazing thing about a spirit that we read about in the Bible called Jezebel. Tell me about both.

TOMI: Well, a spirit of Jezebel's called the depth of Satan in Revelation chapter 2 and the Bible says, "Anyone who overcomes her, he'll give authority of a nations just as he has received from his father." Well, he received it in Psalm 2 where the father said, "Ask me and I'll give you the nations." The father gives it to the son in Psalm 2 and the son gives it to the church that overcomes Jezebel in Revelation chapter 2.

SID: Well, that goes in line with that first word you heard that America is given one more chance—

TOMI: Mm-hmm.

SID: To be the righteous nation that God has destined America to be.

TOMI: Yes, absolutely. When you look at the spirit of Jezebel, the first thing she does is put makeup on her face. Why? Because Satan is the God of this world and the word "world" is the word "cosmos" where we get the word "cosmetics" from.

SID: Ah.

TOMI: Satan always gives us the superficial over the supernatural. For a season, Jezebel is willing to dress herself in anything superficial so that the church can lose discernment and embrace discrimination. What we saw in 2020 with Black Lives Matter versus All Lives Matter and vaccinated versus unvaccinated was the embrace of the superficial. It's all superficial. We need a prophetic reformation because prophets come and they take the makeup off. I believe when God says we only have one more chance in America is, "Do you want to discern or do you want to discriminate?" because when God releases a leader, He says through prophet Samuel, "I don't look as man looks. I don't look at the outward man. I'm not looking for color. I'm not looking for gender. I'm not looking for race. I'm looking for a man or a woman after my heart."

SID: Now you're not saying this is a nine-year countdown to the end of the world are you?

TOMI: No, it is nine years to the rise of the church to be everything that God wants it to be.

SID: Tomi, look in the camera and pray for us.

TOMI: Amen. Father, I just pray, Lord, this is the time where you want to release Issachar everywhere, the outpouring of your spirit on all flesh. You said, "How can they call upon the one they have not heard and how can they hear in whom they have not even believed and how can they believe unless someone is sent?" Lord, I believe you've sent me to speak to that loved one watching today. Lord, this is a new season. Pour out your spirit, pour them out on their sons, pour them out on their daughters. You said, "The secret things belong to the Lord, our God, but the things revealed belong to us and to our children forever." I release this new dispensation upon you now, in Jesus' name. Amen.
