On the Trail of the Nephilim with L.A. Marzulli

Author and researcher L.A. Marzulli has been on a lengthy search for physical evidence of the Nephilim, the giants of the Old Testament. A significant cover-up has taken place over the years, reducing these gigantic hybrid humans to the dustbins of history. But make no mistake about it — the Nephilim were here. Hundreds of excavated graves scattered throughout the world provide evidence of their genetic abomination—the product of the breeding of heavenly angels with the women of earth during the Days of Noah. These ancient builders left behind evidence of their supernatural strength and technological know-how. Their massive, megalithic structures are legendary and evidence of Nephilim architecture abounds worldwide — even in the United States!

Ancient giants, upwards of 12-feet tall, using Ohio and New Hampshire as their construction sites...

Megalithic structures linked to global communication technology...

Skeletal remains with part-human hybrid bones linking the ancient biblical Nephilim to the Americas...

These are just a few of the fascinating topics covered in Sid Roth's interview with L.A. Marzulli, who was given a mandate from the Lord to research and expose the truth behind the Nephilim and how they relate to the end times.

Holding a skull that he and his team cast from remains found in Paracas, Peru, L.A. Marzulli demonstrates how the elongated cranium, with just one parietal plate and a bulging ridge at the top of the skull bolsters his theory that it is a human hybrid. The skulls they found were elongated and distorted with massive eye sockets, bizarre jaw lines, and red hair! Simply put, these skulls are not human! Other tests, including a RAMAN Spectroscopy on a hair sample, also confirm the hybridity of the remains.

The ease of which L.A.'s team found evidence in Peru however, was not found at home in the United States. L.A. was able to track many clues in old newspapers from the 1800s and early 1900s about burial grounds in the U.S. with giant skeletons, but today the bones are nowhere to be found. In many cases the Smithsonian Institution would come, crate the remains, leave the scene and no one would see or hear of the evidence again. Why would the Smithsonian need to remove such artifacts and frustrate this type of research?

The necessity of disproving an ancient race of giants — often the remains having six fingers, six toes, a double row of teeth, red hair and wearing copper ornaments — would lie in the need to protect the Darwinian theory of evolution. Proof that the Nephilim had settled in the United States before the First Nation people would deal a serious blow to Darwinism. However, it's one thing to get rid of bones, it's quite another to hide large-scale earthworks and megalithic structures built with massive stones. This just couldn't be done, and L.A. went to work investigating these structures in the United States and South America.

One such structure is the Great Circle Mound in Ohio, which is a massive earthen circle, over 1,250 feet in diameter. This dates back about 3,000 to 3,500 years, which pre-dates the First Nation people.

Another startling and largely unknown North American structure is in New Hampshire, referred to as the American Stonehenge. This Stonehenge was built for the purpose of telling astronomical events such as the summer and winter solstice. Wondering what would happen, a member of the family that owns the henge decided to draw a line from the center out to the standing stone marking the summer solstice and extend it to see where it would lead. The destination ended at the exact center of the standing stones in Stonehenge, England. Extending the line further we wind up in Beirut, Lebanon, the home of the seafaring people known as the Phoenicians. What is remarkable about this is that the Phoenicians were the descendants of the Canaanites who were a Nephilim tribe, listed in the Bible! But what does this mean for North America and why would the Smithsonian Institution show no interest?

In many First Nation tribes there are legends of ancient giants who ruled the land before the tribes arrived. The Paiute tribe tells of a race of cannibalistic giants whom they declared war on, eventually succeeding in herding them into a cave. After lighting the mouth of the cave on fire, the tribe was able to kill the giants as they attempted to escape the flames. This cave still exists today.

If these red-headed giants were here before First Nation people, their existence destroys the Darwinian theory of how people migrated to North America. However, the skeletal remains and the structures do support the history of the Bible and the timeline of when Joshua and Caleb purged the giants from the land of Canaan. L.A. proposes that some of these Nephilim tribes could have boarded boats and traveled from Egypt to South America and crossed over into North America placing them on the continent approximately 3,500 years ago. This proof does not work for an institution that builds its foundation on a Darwinian platform.

There is an alternate "gospel" gaining in intensity in the world today. L.A. calls it the Alien Gospel. Through L.A.'s research he has found evidence of an "alien conspiracy" dovetailed to the philosophy of Darwinism. One possible end-time scenario is that these "aliens" will return invoking the Great Deception, claiming they were the ones who seeded life and that they are the alien messiah.

They will offer two things: free energy and a DNA

“upgrade.” Many will be deceived, but the truth behind this lie is that there are no aliens.

L.A. is convinced, as his research shows, that these “aliens” are the return of the fallen angels that produced the Nephilim. The same Nephilim that were destroyed during the Days of Noah.

In the Days of Noah, fallen angels descended and mixed with human women producing Nephilim as their offspring. These same fallen angels shared the technology of heaven with primitive man and the Nephilim. This is why we have megalithic structures on earth that can conduct electricity, tell astronomical events, and when viewed from the air, link together, in a type of ancient GPS. Just as it was in the Days of Noah, so shall it be again when the fallen angels return. Could it be that the Mark of the Beast referred to in the book of Revelation is actually a DNA “upgrade” that the fallen angels will offer to a deceived humanity?

Most Christians understand that the mark will be taken in the right hand or forehead and will give one the ability to buy and trade, but what if there is more to this picture? What if this mark will give one the ability to resist disease and lead to an unnatural lifespan of 500 to 900 years? Men and women will seek death, but will be unable to find it. Grievous sores will appear on their bodies and, in the end, they will end up in the lake of fire. Why? Because, taking a mark that “upgrades” your DNA will secretly change your DNA, through fallen angel technology, into that of a modern-day Nephilim.

Through L.A.’s work, we realize how much more we need the Great Designer’s truth in our lives. Jesus says that at the time of His return it will be like the Days of Noah and He will come at an hour we do not expect. The issue becomes whether we are ready for His arrival or not. Jesus, our Messiah, is the only one we need to touch our DNA. He created us and He’s waiting for our acceptance of His invitation. His plan of salvation is far greater than any plan of deception! ✨

L.A. Mazulli

This is not the stuff of science fiction. It is straight out of the Bible and key to understanding end times.

L.A. Mazulli’s brand new riveting book, On the Trail of the Nephilim and his two powerful DVDs, Watchers Six and The Cosmic Chessmatch include startling archeological proof that Nephilim (the hybrid giants mentioned in the Old Testament) and their ancient civilization existed not only in the Middle East, but also in the Americas.

L.A. has done extensive research revealing a cover-up by U.S. government agencies and foreign governments to hide archeological evidence of excavated bones of the Nephilim and artifacts. He also describes unusual structures that argue against Darwinian theory and add credence to the biblical record!

Read for yourself how the old news clippings of past archeological discoveries reveal a race of giant men who once populated North America.

Read the 30 reprints of rediscovered news stories from the 1890s to the 1950s that tell about these giant skeleton findings that pre-date First Nation people.

Understand why God asked Israel in the Old Testament to destroy certain people groups who were the offspring of fallen angels.

What you will read and see is not the stuff of science fiction. It’s not a fantastic fable or the musings of an overzealous archaeologist. It’s straight out of the pages of the Bible.

L.A. Mazulli says, “My research unpacks what Jesus warns about, ‘As it was in the Days of Noah so it will be when the Son of Man returns!’”

This ground-breaking revelation is key to understanding the end times!

Just me, a microphone and over 800 eager Jews and Gentiles.

I just finished my Jewish outreach in Phoenix, Arizona. We had over 800 Jews and Gentiles gathered together in the nicest hotel in the city. The event was advertised as a “lecture on the supernatural” — nothing religious.

When I arrived at the hotel, I entered through the kitchen to avoid the crowd. I saw an ultra-Orthodox man, with beard, yarmulke and black outfit in the kitchen. When he spotted me he took off running. One of our team ran after him, but he ran like a track star and disappeared. We speculated he was from the traditional Jewish community and came to spy and see how many Jewish people had come to my meeting!

I showed up with no Bible, no announcements, no offering and no music. Just me and a microphone. The minute I started, God graced me with words of knowledge and many raised their hands to say they were instantly healed. Once someone witnesses a miracle, he or she is receptive to a full presentation of the Gospel. And will never forget it!

Then for the next hour I shared exclusively from the Old Testament about fulfilled Bible prophecy that proved the Scriptures were from God and that Jesus was the Messiah. I believe this was how believers in the first church shared about Jesus, as the New Testament was not written until many years later. I find that the signs and wonders remove all resistance to hearing the Gospel.

I gave a very strong altar call — even to the point of commanding all who were standing but had previously received the Lord to sit down! About 70 people sat down. I never saw anyone do this before but the words came out of my mouth before I realized what I was saying. Over 50 people remained standing to make a first-time profession of faith!

But the impact was even more far-reaching than the 50 who responded. For instance, I found out later that an unsaved Jewish man instantly had all pain removed from his arthritic fingers. He did not stand to receive the Lord but heard a clear presentation of the Gospel. Many Jews in the audience were in that category. In fact, Christians who attended felt like they wanted to get saved all over again when they heard and understood the Gospel presented from the Old Testament Scriptures. It’s so vibrant and fresh and persuasive!

After the altar call I had people share what happened to them in the meeting. One woman with cancer said a heat came upon her cancer and she was healed! Many others testified about feeling this amazing healing heat. I am still in awe when, with no religious trappings, so many non-believers were healed, even before I told them I believe in Jesus! God is so good!

The daughter of a friend had a dream about me. In the dream my wife and I ran into their house to hide from people who wanted to kill us. The house was a refuge to protect those who were persecuted. Then I said, “It’s happening again!”

After the dream she called to tell me about it. She did not understand it. I immediately understood. The house of refuge was for Jews escaping persecution. My statement referred to the historical and biblical pattern of all countries eventually turning against the Jew.

We must evangelize the Jew quickly.

There is a short window before the persecution comes. This is why I hold Jewish outreaches. This is why I equip Christians to operate in the supernatural. Only signs and wonders will reach large numbers of Jews. This is why we have distributed millions of evangelistic books to Jews throughout the world. This is why we have created Jewish evangelistic websites in Hebrew, English and Russian. The address of the English site is TheyThoughtForThemselves.com. We spend large sums of money to advertise, inviting the unsaved to visit these sites. This is why I have partnered with Dr. Michael Brown to develop, in the near future, an evangelistic website for the Orthodox Jews. Historically after the persecution begins with the Jew, it quickly leads to the persecution of Christians. Those who know how to move in the supernatural will operate in divine provision, favor and protection.

I urge you to enroll in our Supernatural Mentoring Club at SidRoth.org/Join. I urge you to pray and financially partner with us in Jewish evangelism. The ONLY thing you take to heaven are souls. Time is running short! ✨
